

Network Security

New Global Solutions Network Security Services

New Global Solutions has partnered with some of the network security industry's best manufacturers in order to provide our clients with comprehensive network security solutions.

WatchGuard™ Security Appliances Firebox X1250e UTM Bundle

The Firebox X Core e-Series XTM security appliance is the smart choice for businesses that want a strong network security solution with an easy, affordable way to extend capacity, performance, and networking capabilities as business requirements change.

AVG Anti-Virus Network Edition

5 user +1 server license

Antivirus and antispyware protection for your business. Focus on your business and minimize IT

Spam Filtering Services powered by mx Logic

Email Defense Services will protect your email from viruses, worms and spyware from outside your network.

Message Continuity Service
This web based email service will host your email in the event of a disaster then return access to your primary service once service has been restored.

Call for pricing.

Complimentary Network Health Assessment

Our complimentary network health assessment will provide an overview of the health status of your network. This assessment will cover a checklist of network fundamentals that should be in place for a sound network.

Call to schedule an appointment with one of our Specialists today!